The Muzrai Superintendent

in Mysore.

Sir,

With reference to Government Order No.1154-7 dated 21st September 1920, I beg to report that I installed and concerated the Deepa in the Shrine of Sri Subramania on Wednesday the 16th instant. It is the wish of all the devotees who were present at the time that all the twenty-seven lamps should burn every evening during the -- Deeparadhane; and agreeing in the view advised by them, I beg leave to request that, in modification of the arrangements sanctioned in the aforesaid order, the Government will be pleased to issue instructions that all the lamps might be lighted at the time of Deeparadhane every evening and kept burning during the Seva which generally lasts about 25 to 30 minutes.

I had all the lamps lighted and burnt during three successive Deeparadhane Seva in my stay at the Ghatge in connection with the consecration; and by actual trial, it was found that two viss of oil for a month will be ample to burn the lamps as above during the daily Deeparadhane. The archaks and the Parpathegar present thereupon proposed a monthly provision of Rs.2/- for oil and a remuneration of 8 annas a month to the Paricharak for cleaning the lamps and supplying wicks.

As the Bond yields an interest of Rs.31-4-0 a year, I --- request that the Government will be pleased to take the interest accruing half yearly to the funds of the temple on the credit side and to sanction the payment therefrom of the Rs.2-8-0 a month (Rs.2/- to Archak on duty for oil and 8 annas for Paricharak for supply of wicks and cleaning of the lamps) along with the monthly tasdik Paditara charges.

Out of the balance of Rs.1-4-0, one half, 10 annas, may be disbursed as an additional provision for some extra burning during the Kartika month and the other half for similar purpose during the week of Margasira Shasti utsavam.

In view to this arrangement, I shall endorse over the Bond to the Temple itself to be held by the Government on behalf of the Institution in the same way as other Similar Pro notes of Muzrai temples; on the expiry of the term of 20 years, I leave it to the pleasure of the Government to deal with the capital in such manner as they may deem best to continue the object of the endowment.

I beg to remain,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

A. Braidhwaite
